

what are YOU doing this summer?
how about 5 weeks in India?
become InSPIREd.

InSPIRE College is a 5-week summer program in India for South Asian college students. It is a travel, study-abroad, volunteer, self-discovery, and immersion program all rolled into one!

It's about re-evaluating our aspirations as we explore and challenge our assumptions about ourselves and about our relationship with the world around us!

To Apply:

The application deadline is March 9. If you would like to apply, please email us at info@summerinindia.org and download your application at www.SummerInIndia.org immediately.

When?

June 26 to August 2, 2009

For who?

Applicants are required to be of South Asian origin and fall in the age range of 18 to 24.

Other Programs

If the college program isn't for you, check out the website www.inspire-now.org for the Young Professional and Family Program.
